

COMMUNION

Diversity in our society

Quotes from The Synod

‘Young people are trying to make sense of a very complicated and diverse world. We have access to new possibilities to overcome differences and divisions in the world, but this is being realized in different realities and to varying degrees.’

‘Many young people are used to seeing diversity as a richness and find opportunity in the pluralistic world.’

‘Some young people are trying to make sense of faith in an increasingly secular society, where freedom of conscience and religion are under attack. Racism at different levels affects young people in different parts of the world.’

‘There is still an opportunity for the Church to propose another “way” for young people to live their lives.’

Our thoughts:

Do you think diversity makes our society better?

Do you feel free to practise your religion or be upfront about your beliefs?

How can our faith make the world a better place?

Our action:
