

Summer Reading Challenge 2020

We challenge you to read 6 books this summer. These can be any books: books that have been on your shelf a while, new books, favourite books... it's up to you!

Send us your pictures of your favourite books, book reviews or photos of your challenges! Don't forget to share this with your friends – you do not have to be a Youth SVP member to take part.

Challenge

Create your character!

Choose your favourite character. What are the characteristics you admire or dislike?

Do you have any characteristics in common and, if so, what are they? Create a qualities poster and stick it somewhere so that you can be reminded of your positives.

Think about a time when you have supported or been supported by someone this week. Have you learnt anything new about them? What do you think they learnt about you?

Challenge

Imagine you are inviting someone who is in need round for dinner.

- What would the menu be?
- Why did you choose each dish?
- What could your conversation look like?

s

Perhaps you could try making one of the dishes on your menu at home and sending us a picture or designing a menu card? Think about someone who might need support at this time – perhaps they live alone or are struggling. Could you go with an adult to do some shopping for them or donate to a local food bank?

Third book

Challenge

Review your book! You can do this any way you like... written review, filmed review, review using animation or artwork e.g. collage.

Imagine you are a director wanting to change your book into a film. Who would play the main characters?

Which parts of the book would you definitely include/exclude?

Would you add anything new?

Think about what your favourite parts of the holiday have been so far. Either write a letter/email to an elderly family member or give them a call to tell them about them! Who did you decided to call and why?

Create a new ending!

Imagine that you are writing a story about a recent event.

- What would you include?
- What would you miss out?
- What is the message you would like to get across to your reader? Do you think the author managed this or not?

Make a card/write for your priest or someone in your community who helps other people, thanking them for what they do.

Create a gift!

Imagine that you are sending your book to a friend or family member and would like to include a gift relevant to the story. What would you send and why?

Could you create a book package, including your gift and deliver it to a friend or neighbour to enjoy and perhaps they can do the same with one of their books (being very careful of hygiene and social distancing of course!)

Could you create/make a small, non-edible gift for someone who is unwell and deliver it to their door? Who did you gift it to and why?

Sixth book

Challenge

Create a poster or campaign to encourage others to read! You could create a collage, poster, video etc. The choice is yours.

Present it to someone you know. What do they think of your campaign? Could you introduce it in your school or Parish/local community?

Tell 3 friends about the SVP and what you do as a Youth SVP member. Can you encourage them to get involved?

Create a summer collage about what you have been up to this summer! Frame it and keep it as a reminder of 2020.
